The BAFTA Scholarship Programme - UK to China and Hong Kong

The Programme

- The BAFTA Scholarship Programme in China is offering support for British citizens in need of financial assistance to study a course in mainland China or Hong Kong related to a career in film, games or television
- Some examples of eligible courses are listed here
- Each scholarship will provide up to £10,000 towards annual tuition fees, a bursary of up to £5,000 for living expenses, an industry mentor, and free access to BAFTA events for a year
- In return, scholarship recipients are required to contribute to the BAFTA Guru online learning channel and take part in BAFTA's outreach activity to young people
- Students who receive a BAFTA scholarship for the first year of a two-year course will be considered for a scholarship for their second year; this scholarship might be a lower amount in the second year

Eligibility

Applicants must be:

- British Citizens as defined by UK Law.
- Intending to study a course that meets the following criteria:
  - A practical course in film, games or television where the core studies relate to a craft eligible for BAFTA awards recognition
  - No more than two years in length, including short courses
  - Provides Chinese language training for non-fluent speakers, or is taught in English
  - Taught at a Chinese institution (not an outpost of a foreign university) based in Hong Kong or mainland China
