

Find out how to watch the guests arrive on the red carpet at the 2017 Virgin TV British Academy Television Awards, Sunday 14 May 2017.

- Wristbands will be issued from 10:00 at the Nelson Mandela Statue at Royal Festival Hall.
- There will be no access to the public viewing area without a wristband.
- Wristbands will be given out on a first come first serve basis.
- Those who have been issued with a wristband will be loaded into the red carpet viewing areas at approximately 14:00 on Sunday 14 May.
- The wristbands are numbered and will be placed on the spectator's wrist immediately and will not be transferable.
- No lists of any kind will be honoured and security will only allow access to the red carpet viewing areas based on the numbered wristband.
- Should your wristband become lost or damaged, there will be no automatic right of re-admission during the event
- BAFTA security will give instructions on the day to help you safely into the viewing areas. They will be dressed in high visibility jackets therefore easy to identify. Please listen to their instructions
- BAFTA does not have permission for spectators to queue in the vicinity at any time and does not encourage it, public who wait do so at their own risk and may be asked to move on.
- We request that you do not block any doorways from any businesses or residents, they need to be accessible at all times.
- Any public who are found to be blocking doorways or the public footpath or restricting public or vehicle access in any way will not be issued a wristband and will be asked to move.
- Tents will not be permitted as they restrict access along the public footpath.
- There will be random bag searches of all public in the viewing areas in operation so we advise you to bring as little baggage as possible.
- Please take all your rubbish with you and keep the area clean.
- Please remember that BAFTA cannot guarantee the weather – please dress appropriately.
- The organisers reserve the right to refuse admission to, remove or exclude any person who's behaviour gives rise to concerns regarding the health and safety of the public, security, staff or themselves.
