Battlefield 1, Dishonored 2, Pokémon Go, Titanfall 2 and Virginia receive three nominations each. ABZÛ, Batman: Arkham VR, Doom, Forza Horizon 3, Mafia III, OXENFREE, That Dragon, Cancer and Unravel receive two nominations each.

Nominated in the Performer category are Alex Hernandez (Lincoln Clay) in Mafia III, Cissy Jones (Delilah) in Firewatch, Navid Negahban (‘Hajj Agha’) in 1979 Revolution: Black Friday and Emily Rose (Elena Fisher), Nolan North (Nathan Drake) and Troy Baker (Sam Drake) in Uncharted 4.

Other nominated games are The Banner Saga 2, Dawn of Titans, Destiny: Rise of Iron, Deus Ex Go, Elite Dangerous: Horizons, Eve Online, Final Fantasy XIV, HITMAN, LEGO Star...

Showcasing the very best in young games development and design talent, the BAFTA Ones To Watch Award in association with Dare to be Digital finalists are Among the Stones, Pentagrab and Rebound.

The nominations for the AMD Esports Audience Award are Clash Royale, Counter-Strike: Global Offensive, Dota 2, League of Legends, Overwatch and Street Fighter V. The winner of this award will be voted for by the public and presented at the ceremony.

For the first time, the British Academy Games Awards will be hosted by writer and presenter Danny Wallace, who commented: “I’m delighted to have been asked to host BAFTA’s Games Awards, which are the very best and most prestigious awards. This year’s nominations show, as always, the talent and hard work this incredibly exciting industry displays in all fields. I’m looking forward to being part of such an important night for games.”

The Awards take place on Thursday 6 April at Tobacco Dock, London. The awards will be preceded by a Champagne Taittinger reception and followed by a seated dinner and after-party for guests. Tickets are available at www.bafta.org/games/awards/tickets. On the night, the ceremony will be streamed live at twitch.tv/bafta BAFTA’s website, www.bafta.org, will feature red carpet highlights, photography and winners’ interviews, as well as dedicated coverage on its social networks including Facebook (@BAFTA), Twitter (@BAFTAGames / #BAFTAGames), Instagram and Snapchat.

The British Academy Games Awards are supported by industry partners Electronic Arts, GAME, SEGA Europe Ltd. and Ubisoft Entertainment with ME London Hotel the official hotel partner.

BAFTA curates a year-round global programme of events and initiatives that support the games industry. This includes developer talks, showcases, debates, scholarships and networking, as well as the flagship Games Lecture by an inspirational practitioner. BAFTA Young Game Designers (YGD) gives young people and educators insights into the industry and access to the brightest creative minds in games. Applications for YGD and BAFTA Crew Games, the professional network and masterclass programme, are now open.

Guests attending BAFTA’s awards ceremonies support the organisation’s charitable work and initiatives that identify, support and nurture new talent in this thriving sector. Applications are now being taken for games membership of BAFTA at membership.bafta.org.
