As the only Anglo-American professional organization founded to promote and advance original work in film, television and interactive media, The British Academy of Film and Television Arts Los Angeles serves as a link between the Hollywood and British production and entertainment business communities.

A California non-profit public benefit corporation, BAFTA Los Angeles is a local organization with a global reach. As the L.A. branch of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts, headquartered in London, we represent not only our 1,200 members, but the full 6,500 Academy members based in the United Kingdom, New York and Los Angeles.

Membership in the Academy is both highly sought after and highly exclusive – applicants must be proposed and seconded by existing Academy members and thus represent the very top professionals in their various fields; from award winning writers, actors and directors, to key managers, network and studio executives and agents.

We host stellar parties and awards ceremonies, honoring achievement in film and television, and produce educational events and seminars for our membership. But we also seek to form a bridge between our industry and the wider community, offering scholarships, student film awards, high school Shakespeare workshops, inner-city screening programs and parties, putting our membership’s incredible expertise to astounding effect in the Los Angeles community.
THE BAFTA BRITANNIA HONORS

BRITISH ACADEMY OF FILM AND TELEVISION ARTS
Los Angeles

OCTOBER 30, 2015
BEVERLY HILTON
THE BRITANNIA HONORS were created in 1989 to celebrate the achievements of those who have made an outstanding contribution to excellence in the entertainment industry. Honors are given for excellence in film, directing and comedy, as well as for worldwide contribution to entertainment.
THE EVENT

The Britannia Honors are held at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Beverly Hills and are attended by 1,000 invited guests. The black tie evening begins with a star-studded Red Carpet lined with key worldwide media outlets.

While guests enjoy a reception outside the Ballroom, honorees, presenters and select guests mingle during Cocktail Hour at a hosted VIP Reception. Guests and VIPs then proceed to the ballroom for dinner followed by the live Awards Show. A hosted After Party ends the evening.

HOST

Previous Britannia MCs have included: WHOOPI GOLDBERG, ALAN CUMMING, STEPHEN FRY, HARRY SHEARER, ROGER MOORE, HUGH GRANT, ANGELA LANSBURY, CRAIG FERGUSON, MICHAEL SHEEN, CARRIE FISHER, and BAFTA nominated Welsh actor and comic ROB BRYDON.
THE TV SHOW

The Britannia Honors are a televised event. In the US, both the Red Carpet special and the awards show air the day following the ceremony. The live event and the television airings garner widespread media coverage.

HISTORY

The Britannia Honors began as a much smaller gala dinner, with just one honoree, and remained thusly until 2001. Early recipients included: STEVEN SPEILBERG, DUSTIN HOFFMAN, ANTHONY HOPKINS, MICHAEL CAINE, PETER USTINOV, JOHN TRAVOLTA and MARTIN SCORSESE.

While it has evolved into a multi-award ceremony and Hollywood party, the unique appeal of the Britannia Honors remains its intimacy, conviviality, spontaneity and its classically British sense of style.
Each year Hollywood’s top talent flock to the Britannia Honors to pay tribute to their friends and colleagues. Each presenter is chosen for their personal connection to the honoree, making the evening uniquely heartfelt and often hilarious.
