

BRITISH ACADEMY GAMES AWARDS

Celebrating and rewarding the very best in games

In 1998, BAFTA presented its first-ever games award to GoldenEye 007, one of the best first-person shooters of all time. Since then, BAFTA's annual British Academy Games Awards has been recognising creative excellence across the UK and around the world, showcasing the best games and rewarding outstanding achievement.

Awards in Numbers

Most nominations for a single game

10

Most wins for a single game

7

BAFTA members voting in the Games Awards

600

Most Nominated Franchises

Inspiring New Talent

With initiatives such as Young Game Designers and Breakthrough Brits, BAFTA plays a major role in supporting new talent within the Games industry.

of BAFTA-winning Breakthrough Brits

3

of BAFTA-nominated YGD winners

1

Industry Crossovers

Famous Voices*

*and a famous director

Kevin Spacey

Mark Hamill

Ellen Page

Stephen Fry

Steven Spielberg

Kiefer Sutherland

Games in Film

Assassin's Creed

*released late 2016

Batman: Arkham Knight

Star Wars

LEGO Dimensions

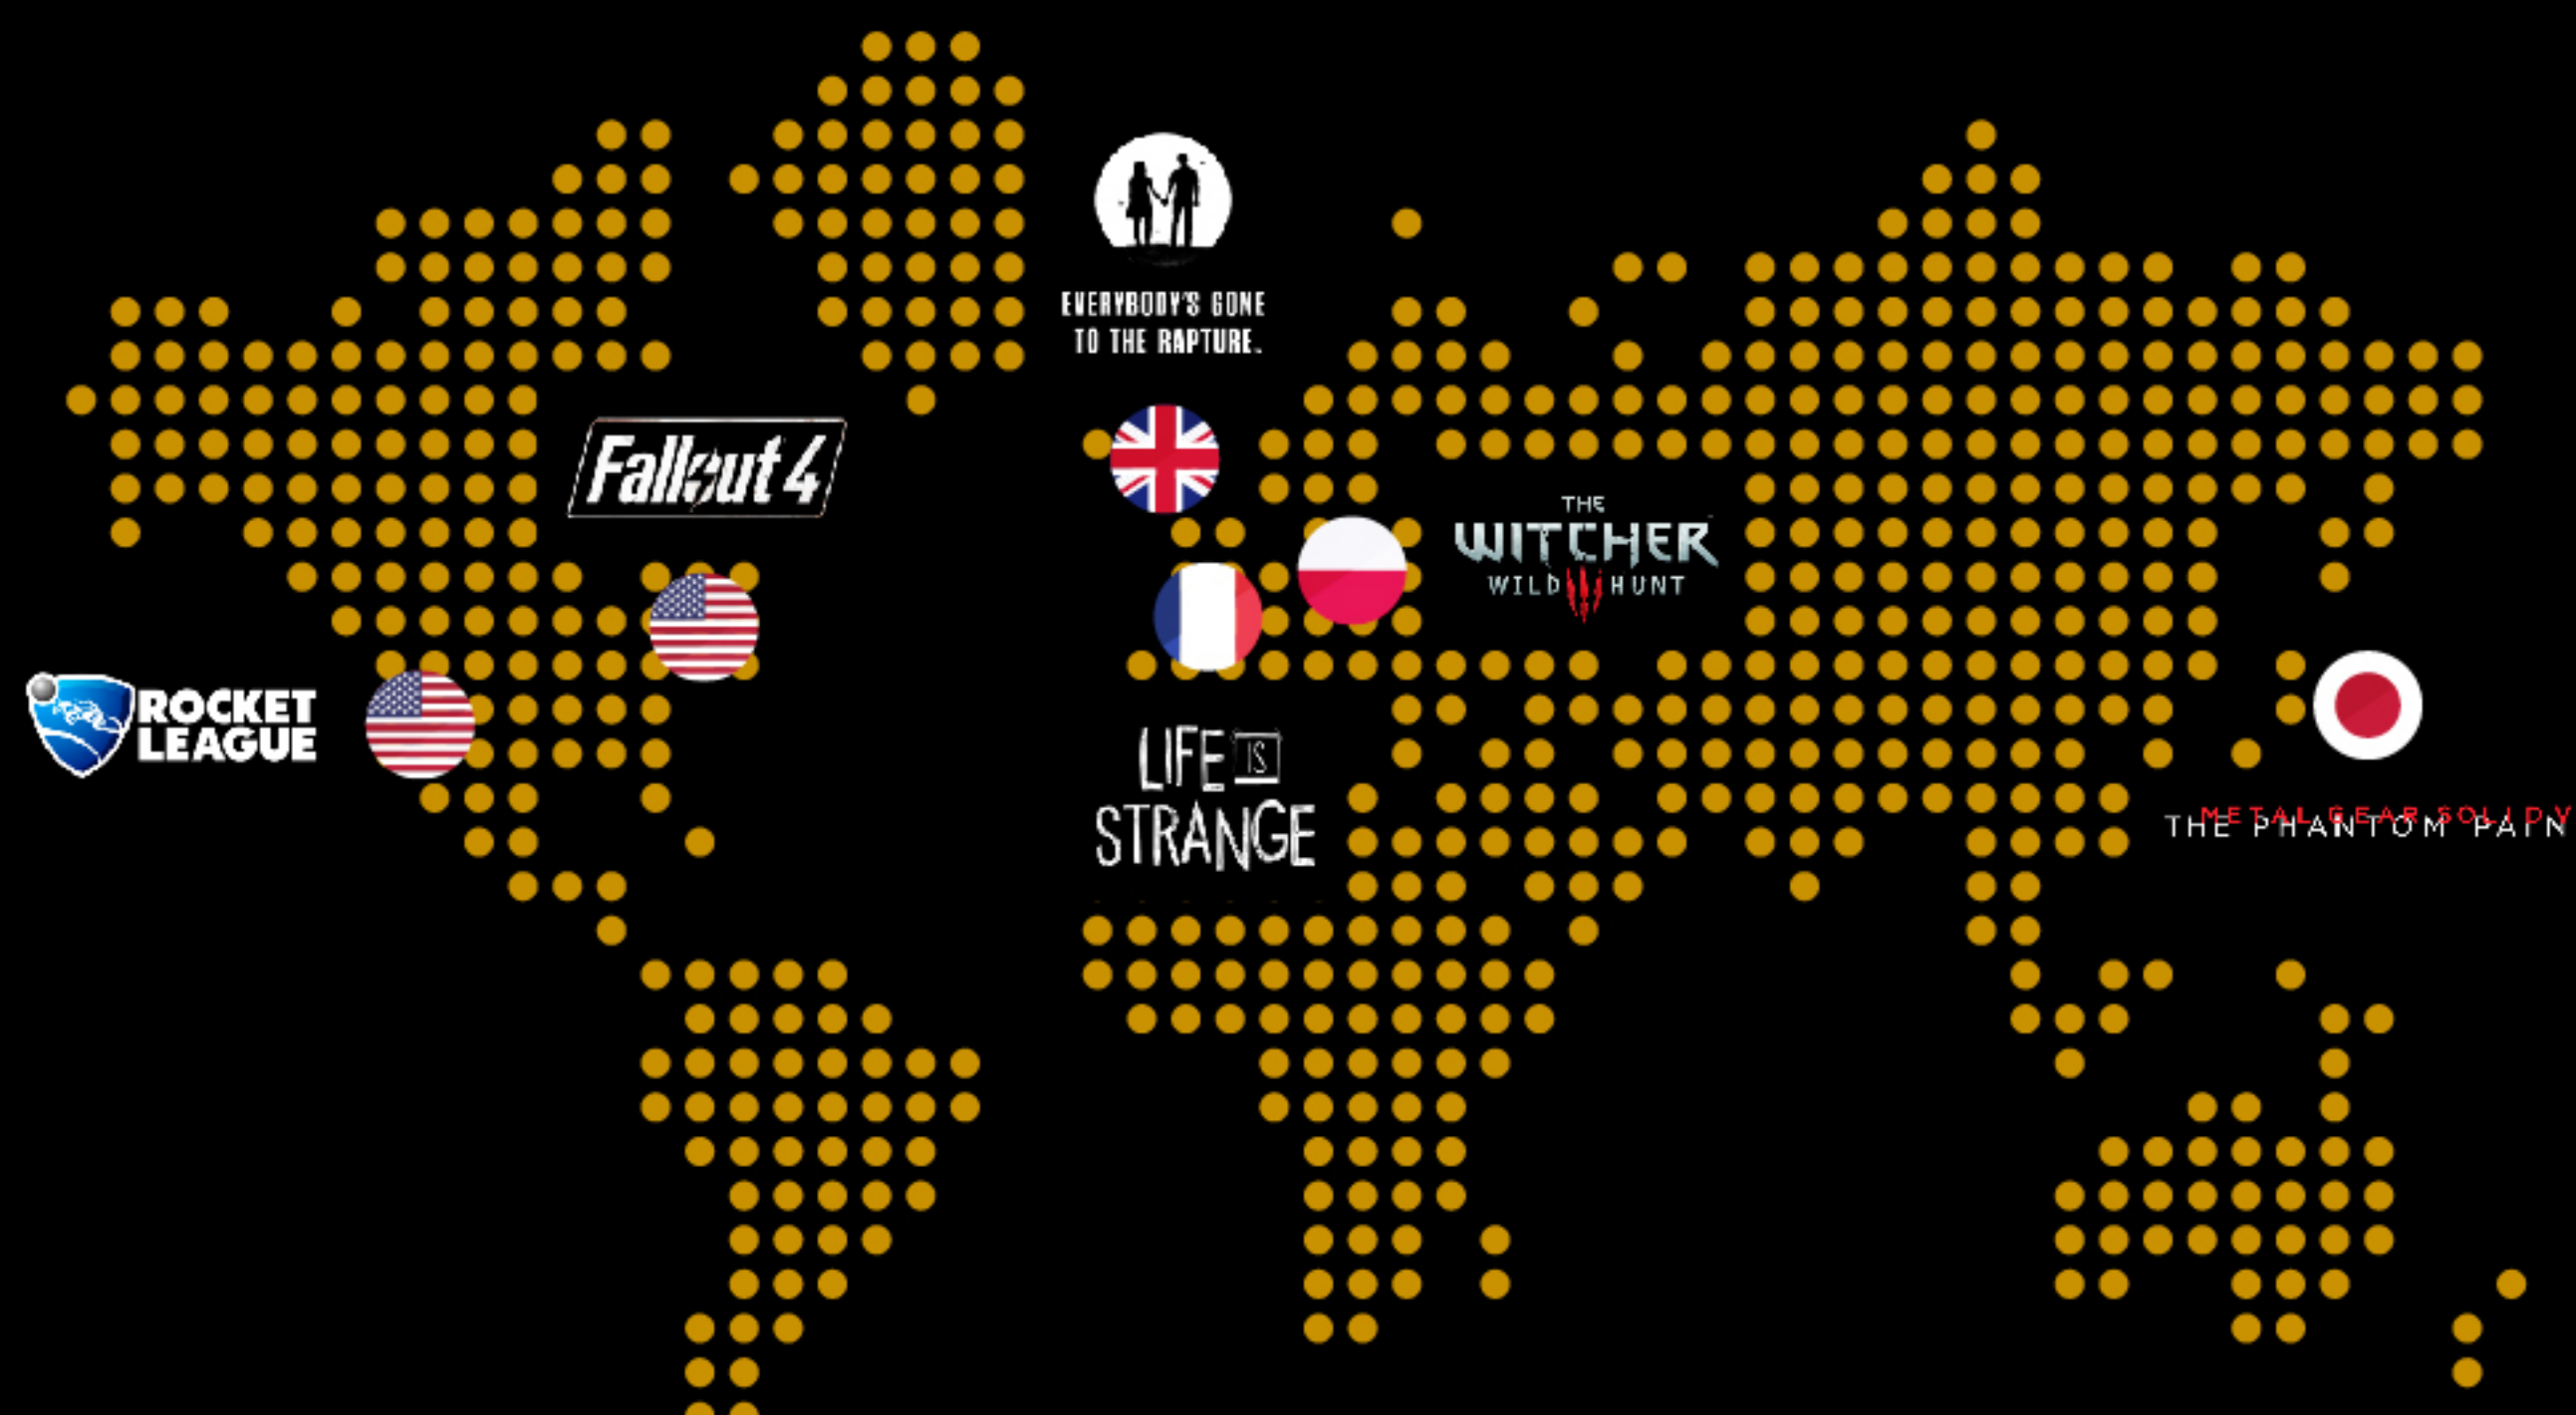

Super Mario

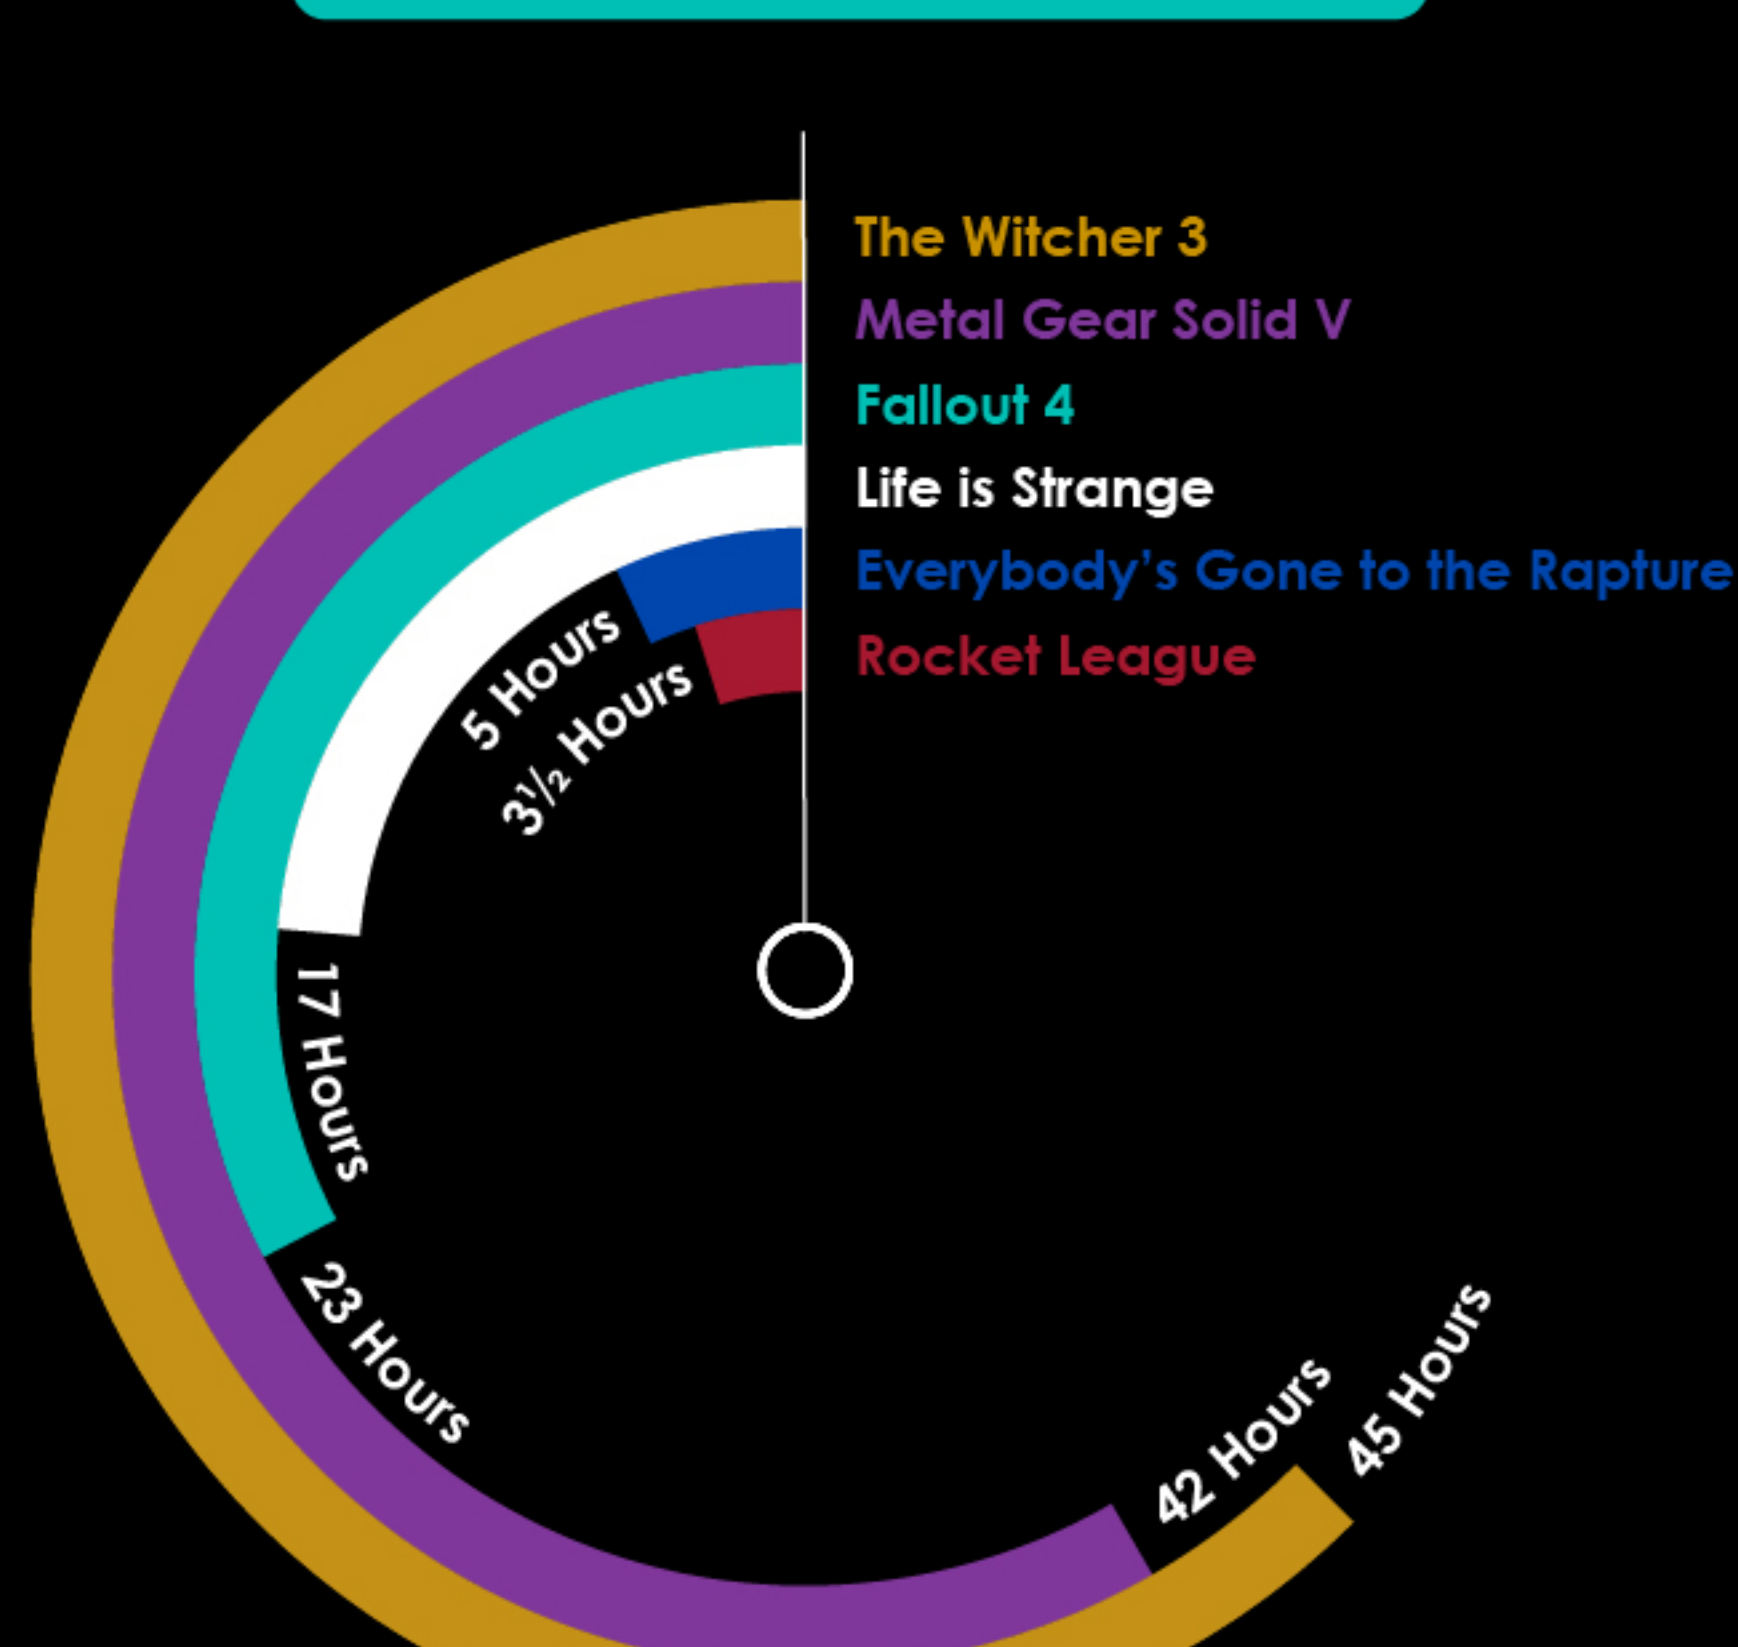

Tomb Raider

2016 Best Game Category

Average completion time

Watch the British Academy Games Awards live

7 April @ 17.45

on

twitch