The officer receiving the request shall cause notice to be promptly given to the Members entitled to vote, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of this Article III, that a meeting will be held, and the date for such meeting, which date shall be determined by the Board and shall be not less than thirty-five (35) nor more than ninety (90) days following the receipt of the request and the place for such meeting. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed as limiting, fixing, or affecting the time when a meeting of Members may be called by the Board.

Section 4. Notice of Members’ meetings.
(a) General Notice Contents. All notices of meetings of Members shall be sent or otherwise given in accordance with subsection (c) of this Section 4 of this Article III not less than ten (10) nor more than ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting, or if notice is served other than by first-class, registered or certified mail, or e-mail, notice shall be given not less than twenty (20) nor more than ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting. (i) Amending the articles of incorporation of the Corporation (the “Articles”);
(ii) Approving a contract or transaction in which a Director has a material financial interest;
(iii) Approving a plan of distribution of assets, other than cash, in liquidation when the Corporation has more than one (1) class of Members outstanding.
(iv) Any other matters deemed necessary by the Board. Action by Members on such items may be different from the proposals, if so resolved by the Members, provided that the Member action is within the scope of the notice.

(c) Manner of Giving Notice. Notice of any meeting of the Members shall be given either personally or by first-class, certified or registered mail or other means of written communication, including e-mail, addressed to each Member either at the address of that Member appearing on the books of the Corporation or the address given by the Member to the Corporation for the purpose of notice. Notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time when delivered personally or deposited in the mail or sent by facsimile transmission, telegram or other means of written communication.

(d) Affidavit of Mailing Notice. An affidavit of the mailing or other means of giving any notice of any members' meeting may be executed by the Secretary, or any agent of the Corporation giving the notice, and if so executed, shall be filed and maintained in the minute book of the Corporation.

Section 5. Quorum. The presence in person or by proxy of one third (1/3) of the Full Members of the Corporation at any meeting shall constitute a quorum for transaction of business. The Members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Full Members to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of Full Members required to constitute a quorum. Provided however, that no action to amend the Articles or these Bylaws may be taken unless a quorum of the Full Members is present, in person or by proxy.

Section 6. Adjourned meeting. Any Members’ meeting, Annual or Special, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of the majority of the Full Members represented at the meeting, either in person or by proxy. It shall not be necessary to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting or the business transacted thereat, other than by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken. except that, when any meeting is adjourned for more than forty-five (45) days or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed by the Board for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Member entitled to vote thereat. At the adjourned meeting, the Corporation may transact any business which could have been transacted at the original meeting.

Section 7. Voting policies for Full Members and Professional Members.

(a) Eligibility to Vote. Persons entitled to vote at any meeting of the Members shall be Members in good standing as of the date determined in accordance with Section 10 of this Article III, subject to the provisions of New York Not-For-Profit Corporation Law (the “Code”).

(b) Manner of Casting Votes. Each Full Member and each Professional Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote. Voting may be by ballot, in person or by proxy.

(c) Only Majority of Members Represented at Meeting Required, Unless Otherwise Specified. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the Members represented at the meeting, entitled to vote and voting on any matter, shall be the act of the Members, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by the Code or by the Articles or by these Bylaws.

Section 8. Waiver of notice or consent by members.

Attendance by a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of that meeting, except when the person objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business due to the inadequacy or illegality of the notice. Also, attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters not included in the notice of the meeting, if that objection is expressly made at the meeting.

Section 9. Action by written ballot without a meeting.

(a) General. Any action that may be taken at any regular or Special meeting of Members may be taken by written ballot without a meeting and without prior notice upon compliance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Distribution and Solicitation of Written Ballots. The Corporation shall distribute one (1) written ballot to each Member entitled to vote: such ballots shall be mailed or delivered in the manner required by Section 4 of this Article III for giving notice of special meetings. All solicitations of votes by ballot shall: (i) clearly state the purpose of the ballot, (ii) indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement; (iii) state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure(s); and (iv) specify the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted. Each ballot so distributed shall: (i) set forth the proposed action; and (ii) provide the Members an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of each proposal.
(c) Quorum; Majority. Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when (i) the number of votes cast by ballot within the time specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and (ii) the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting.

(d) Revocation. No written ballot may be revoked after delivery to the Members or deposit in the mails whichever first occurs.

(e) Filing. All written ballots received by the Corporation shall be maintained in the corporate records by the Secretary.

(f) Effect of Noncompliance. Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any corporate action taken, but may be the basis for challenging any written ballot, and any Member entitled to vote may petition the Supreme Court for the judicial district in which the principal office of the Corporation shall be located to compel compliance with these Bylaws or the Code.

Section 10. Record date for Member notice, voting, and giving consents and other actions.

(a) To Be Determined by Board. For the purposes of determining which Members are entitled to receive notice of any meeting, to vote, to give consent to corporate action without a meeting, or to take other action, the Board may fix, in advance, a "record date," which shall not be more than ninety (90) nor fewer than ten (10) days before the date of any such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days before any such action without a meeting. Only Members of record and in good standing on the date so fixed are entitled to receive notice, to vote, to give consents, or take other action, as the case may be, except as otherwise provided in the Articles, or in the Code.

(b) Failure of Board to Determine Date.

   (i) "Record Date" Means as of the Close of Business. For purposes of this paragraph (b), a person holding Member status as of the close of business on the record date shall be deemed the Member of record.

   (ii) Record Date for Notices or Voting. Unless fixed by the Board, the record date for determining those Members entitled to receive notice of or to vote at a meeting of Members shall be the first business day preceding the day on which notice is given.

   (iii) Record Date for Written Consent to Action Without Meeting. Unless fixed by the Board, the record date for determining those Members entitled to vote by ballot on corporate action without a meeting, shall be the day on which the first written ballot is mailed or solicited.

   (iv) Record Date for Other Actions. Unless fixed by the Board, the record date for determining those Members entitled to take any other action shall be the date the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the sixtieth (60th) day prior to the date of such other action, whichever is later.
Section 11. Proxies. Each Member in good standing entitled to vote, has the right to do so either in person or by one (1) or more persons authorized by a written proxy executed by such Member and delivered to the Secretary. Any proxy duly executed continues in full force and effect until revoked by the person executing it prior to the vote in question. Such revocation may be effected either (a) by a writing delivered to the Secretary stating that the proxy is revoked, (b) by a subsequent proxy executed by the person executing the prior proxy and delivered to the Secretary or his/her designee at the meeting, or (c) as to any meeting, by attendance at the meeting and voting in person by the person executing the proxy; provided, however, that no proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy, except that the maximum term of any proxy shall be three (3) years from the date of execution. A proxy is not revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker or the termination of a membership as a result thereof, unless, before the vote is counted, written notice of such death or incapacity is received by the Corporation.

Section 12. Inspector(s) of Election. In advance of any meeting of the Members, the Board may appoint inspector(s) of election to monitor such meeting and any adjournment thereof. If inspector(s) of election be not so appointed, or if any person or persons so appointed fail to appear or refuse to act, the chairman of any such meeting may, and at the request of any Member or Member's proxy shall, make such appointment at the meeting. The number of inspector(s) shall be either one (1) or three (3). If appointed at a meeting at the request of one (1) or more Members or proxies, the majority of the Members represented in person or by proxy shall determine whether one (1) or three (3) inspector(s) are to be appointed. In the case of any action by written ballot without a meeting as provided for in Section 9 of this Article III, the Board may also appoint inspector(s) of election.

Whether the election is at a meeting or by written ballot without a meeting, the powers and duties of the inspector(s) shall be as prescribed by Section 610 of the Code and shall include: determining the number of Members outstanding and the voting power of each; determining the Members represented at the meeting; determining the existence of a quorum; determining the authenticity, validity, and effect of proxies; receiving votes, ballots, or consent; hearing and determining all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote; counting and tabulating all votes or consents; determining when the polls shall close; determining the result; and doing such acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all Members. If there are three (3) inspectors of election, the decision, act, or certificate of a majority is effective in all respects as the decision, act, or certificate of all.

ARTICLE IV
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. Subject to limitations of the Articles, these Bylaws, and the Code relating to action required to be approved by the Members or by a majority of Members, the activities and affairs of the Corporation shall be conducted, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the Board. The Board may delegate the management of the activities of the Corporation to any person or persons, a management company, or committees however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the Board shall have the following powers in addition to the other powers enumerated in these Bylaws.

(a) To select and remove “Co-opted Directors” in accordance with Article V of these Bylaws, and all the other officers, agents, and employees of the Corporation, prescribe powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with the Code, the Articles, or these Bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.

(b) To conduct, manage, and control the affairs and activities of the Corporation and to make such rules and regulations therefore not inconsistent with the Code, the Articles or these Bylaws, as they may deem best.

(c) To adopt, make, and use a corporate seal, and to alter the form of such seal from time to time as they may deem best.

(d) To authorize the issuance of memberships of the Corporation from time to time, upon such terms and for such consideration as may be lawful.

(e) To borrow money and incur indebtedness for the purposes of the Corporation, and to cause to be executed and delivered therefor, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidences of debt and securities therefor.

Section 2. Number of Directors. The authorized number of Directors of the Board shall be between thirteen (13) and nineteen (19), unless modified by resolution of the Board.

Section 3. Qualifications, selection and term of office.

(a) Only a person who (i) has been a regular Member in good standing of the Corporation for a period of at least one (1) year immediately prior to the effective date of the election, and (ii) has been neither suspended for less than thirty (30) days, nor subject to any other disciplinary action under Article II Section 4(b)(ii) in the two (2) years prior to the effective date of the election, and (iii) has not been suspended for more than thirty (30) days at any time, shall be eligible to be nominated as a candidate for election to serve as a Director. The term of office for each Director shall be three (3) years except that the term of office for a Director who assumes the position of Chair in the four (4)-year Chair Sequence or the three (3)-year Partial Chair Sequence described in Article VII, Section 6, may extend up to six (6) years. The regular three (3)-year term of office of a Director who assumes the position of Vice Chair during such three (3)-year term but does not advance to the office of Chair during such regular three (3)-year term or in the first year following such regular three (3)-year term, shall not be extended. Each Director shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected. The election of Directors shall take place at the Annual General Meeting. No Director may serve as a member of the Board for more than three (3) consecutive terms, which may include an individual term that comprises a Chair Sequence or Partial Chair Sequence. Each time that a Director has served three (3) consecutive terms, he/she may stand for election again after one (1) year has elapsed.

(b) The number of Members running for election to the Board (each a “Board Candidate”), corresponding with the number of Director positions to be filled in such election, who receive the highest number of votes cast by Members in such election (“Majority Candidates”), shall be recognized as having been elected to the Board provided that at all times, Full Members shall constitute at least a two thirds (2/3) majority of the Board. If recognizing the election to the Board of one (1) or more Majority Candidates who are Professional Members would cause less than a two thirds (2/3) majority of the Board to be Full Members, then such Professional Member(s) (“Ineligible Majority Candidates”) shall be deemed ineligible and shall not be recognized as having been elected to the Board, and the Board Candidate(s) who are Full Members who have received the next highest number of votes cast by Members shall be recognized as having been elected to the Board, sufficient to maintain a two thirds (2/3) majority of Full Members as Directors of the Board.

(c) In the event of an electoral tie in the election of Director, at the first Board meeting after the election, the Chair shall draw lots between the tied candidates standing for election in order to determine the successful candidate for election. The Board may make regulations and create policy governing the conduct of Directors’ elections, including, but not limited to, restrictions on, or prohibition of, the solicitation of votes by candidates, and the use of membership lists for such purpose.

Section 4. Vacancies.

(a) Any Director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the Chair, the Vice Chair, the Secretary, or the Board, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, in the discretion of the Board, a successor may be elected before such time to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

(b) If the Board determines that a vacancy exists, and that it should be filled without an election, said vacancy shall be filled, subject to Article IV, Section 3(b), by the candidate for Director at the last annual election of Directors who (i) received the highest number of votes, (ii) was not elected to the Board (including without limitation, Ineligible Majority Candidates), (iii) agrees to serve as a Director, and (iv) received a minimum of fifteen percent (15%) of all votes cast at the prior election. If such candidate does not agree to serve as a Director, or there is more than one vacancy, then the candidate with the next highest number of votes at the prior election who meets all of the requirements above shall be elected to fill such vacancy, and so forth. If any candidates have met all the above requirements and received the same number of votes, then lots shall be drawn between the candidates in accordance with the procedure under this Article IV, Section 3.

(c) If the number of persons meeting the above requirements who are available to fill such vacancy have been exhausted by the above procedure, vacancies on the Board may be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Each Director so elected shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the replaced Director and until such replacement Director's successor has been elected and qualified.

(d) A vacancy or vacancies on the Board shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any Director, or if the authorized number of Directors be increased, or if the Members fail, at any regular or Special Meeting of Members at which any Director or Directors are elected, to elect the full authorized number of Directors to be voted for at that meeting.

The Board may declare vacant the office of a Director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court or convicted of a felony.

(e) The Board may also declare vacant the office of a Director who has failed to attend at least three (3) consecutive Board meetings provided that the following procedure is followed. Following unanimous determination by the Chair and a Vice Chair that (a) a Director has so failed to attend three (3) consecutive Board meetings, and (b) a motion to remove the Director should be introduced to the Board, a notice shall be sent by prepaid, first-class, or registered mail to the most recent address of the Director as shown on the Corporation's records, stating that a motion to remove the Director shall be introduced to a meeting of the Board, and setting forth the reasons for the proposed removal, and the date, time and place of that meeting. Such notice shall be sent at least fifteen (15) days before that meeting. The notice shall also state that the Director being removed shall be given an opportunity to be heard, either orally or in writing, at that meeting.

(f) If any vacancy(ies) is not filled by the Directors in accordance with this Section within ninety (90) days of said vacancy arising, the Members may elect a Director or Directors at any time to fill said vacancy(ies).

(g) No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Directors prior to the expiration of the Director's term of office.

Section 5. Place of meeting. Regular meetings or Special Meetings of the Board shall be held at any place within or without the City of New York which has been designated from time to time by the Board. In absence of such designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation.
Section 6. Annual meetings. Prior to each Annual General Meeting, or at such other time as the Board may determine, the Board shall hold a meeting for the purpose of organization, election of officers, and/or the transaction of other business.

Section 7. Other regular meetings. Other regular meetings of the Board shall be held at times to be fixed by the Board. Directors will attempt to attend all regular meetings of the Board, but should a Director miss a meeting, such Director will be responsible for fulfilling any task assigned to him or her by the Board. The Board may invite members or non-members to address its meetings. Save as aforesaid, only Directors may attend Board meetings.

Section 8. Special meetings. Special Meetings of the Board for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by Chair, a Vice Chair, the Secretary, or any two (2) Directors. Special Meetings of the Board shall be held upon four (4) business days notice by first-class mail or two (2) business days notice given personally or by telephone, e-mail, telex or other similar means of communications, or in any other manner permitted. Any such notice shall state the purpose of the meeting and be addressed or delivered to each Director at such Director’s address as it is shown upon the records of the Corporation or as may have been given to the Corporation by the Director for purposes of notice or, if such address is not shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the principal office of the Corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to have been given at the time a written notice is deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid. Any other written notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission, or actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by electronic means, to the recipient. Oral notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is communicated, in person or by telephone, e-mail, telecopier or similar means of communication, to the recipient or to a person at the office of the recipient who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the recipient.

Section 9. Quorum. A majority of the authorized Members on the Board, at least two of whom must be Officers of the Board (as defined in Article VII), constitutes a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in Section 12 of this Article IV. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board, unless a greater number is required by the Code or by the Articles, except as provided in the next sentence. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 10. Participation in meetings by conference telephone. Members of the Board, who are unable to attend a meeting in person, may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as the most current policy adopted by the Board on this subject is followed.
Section 11. Waiver of notice. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director who signs a waiver of notice or a written consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such Director. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meetings.

Section 12. Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any Directors' meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent Directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned, except as provided in the next sentence. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

Section 13. Action without meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all Members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such consent or consents shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the Board and shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

Section 14. Fees and compensation of directors. In principle, Directors offer their services on a volunteer basis and may not receive compensation, in cash or trade value, if any, for their services. Any compensation or reimbursement to a Director can only be made by the Board by following the current policy of the Corporation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, the Board has the right but not the obligation to elect a successor, who may be elected before such time, to take office when the resignation becomes effective. The Board may remove a Co-opted Director, with or without cause. Such removal shall be effective upon such action and the Board shall notify any Co-opted Director so removed as soon as practicable thereafter.

Special Meetings of Committees may also be called by resolution of the Board. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of any Committee when necessary and shall be filed with the corporate records. The Board may adopt rules for the government of any Committee not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws.

Section 4. Executive Committee. Following such two (2) -year term, the Chair shall serve a one (1) -year term as a Vice Chair in support of the new Chair. (Such four [4]-year sequence is referred to as the “Chair Sequence.”)

If there is no Vice Chair eligible to become Chair, the Board shall elect the Chair by secret ballot at an annual meeting of Directors or at such other time and place as the Board may decide, who shall serve a two (2)–year term as Chair followed by a one (1)-year term as Vice Chair in support of the new Chair. committee meetings, and the proceedings thereof. The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal office in the State of New York the original or a copy of the Articles and Bylaws, as amended to date. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Board and any committees thereof required by these Bylaws or by the Code to be given, shall keep, or cause to be kept, the seal of the Corporation in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board. Section 1. Purpose of the Board Of Trustees. The purpose of the Board of Trustees shall be to serve the Board of Directors in an advisory capacity. The Board of Trustees shall have no authority of, or responsibility for, supervision, direction or control of the business and affairs of the Corporation and cannot vote on Board of Directors matters.

Section 2. Number of Trustees. The authorized number of Trustees shall be up to a total of thirty (30) but every effort will be made to maintain the total number of Trustees at no more than twenty (20). The Board of Directors may appoint one of the Trustees to serve as Chair of the Board of Trustees, for such period and upon such terms as the Board of Directors shall determine.

Section 3. Selection and term of office. Section 4. Vacancies.

(a) Any Trustee may resign effective upon giving notice to the Chair or a Vice Chair, unless the notice specifies a later time of effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time a successor may be elected by the Board of Directors before such time to take office when the resignation becomes effective. Vacancies on the Board of Trustees may be filled by the Board of Directors in accordance with the procedure under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and each Trustee so elected shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the replaced Trustee and until such replacement Trustee's successor has been elected.

(b) A vacancy or vacancies on the Board of Trustees shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any Trustee, or the election of any Trustee as a Director of the Corporation, or if the authorized number of Trustees is increased. The Board of Directors may declare vacant the office of a Trustee who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court or been convicted of a felony. In addition, the Board of Directors may also declare vacant upon the unanimous motion of the Chair and Vice Chairs and a two-thirds majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present, the office of a Trustee who has failed in a material and serious degree to observe the rules of conduct of the Corporation, or who has engaged in conduct materially and seriously prejudicial to the Corporation.

Section 5. Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Trustees. Minutes of each such meeting shall be prepared, if necessary, signed by the Chair of the Board of Trustees (if one exists, otherwise the Trustee who has served the longest in that capacity or is appointed by the Board of Directors), and filed at the principal office of the Corporation. Individual meetings can also be held by Trustees on the Board of Trustees with each Trustee during the course of the year.

ARTICLE IX
FISCAL YEAR
The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be July 1 to June 30.

ARTICLE X
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this Article X, "agent" means any person who is or was a Director, Co-opted Director, officer, Trustee, employee, or other agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer, Trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or was a Director, officer, Trustee, employee, or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the Corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation; "proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative; and "expenses" includes without limitation attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under Section 4(c) of this Article X.

Section 2. Indemnification in actions by third parties. Subject to the provisions of the Code, the Corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding, by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful. No indemnification shall be made under this Section 2:

(a) In respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation in the performance of such person's duty to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which such court shall determine;

(b) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or

(c) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval, unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General.

Section 3. Indemnification against expenses. To the extent that an agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 2 of this Article X or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

Section 4. Required determinations. Except as provided in Section 3 of this Article X, any indemnification under this Article X shall be made by the Corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 2 of this Article X by:

(a) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who are not parties to such proceeding;

(b) Approval of the members with the person to be indemnified not being entitled to vote; or,
(c) The court in which such proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney, or other person is opposed by the Corporation.

Section 5. Advance of expenses. Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay such amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article X.

Section 6. Other indemnification. No provision made by the Corporation to indemnify its Directors or officers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the Articles, Bylaws, a resolution of Directors on the Board an agreement, or otherwise, shall be valid unless consistent with this Article X. Nothing contained in this Article X shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than such Directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

Section 7. Forms of indemnification not permitted. No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article X except as provided in Sections 3 or 4(c), in any circumstances where it appears:

(a) That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles, these Bylaws, or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or

(b) That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent’s status as such whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this Article X, provided, however, that a Corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the Corporation for a violation of the Code.

Section 9. Nonapplicability to fiduciaries of employee benefit plans. This Article X does not apply to any proceeding against any Trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in such person’s capacity as such, even though such person may also be an agent of the Corporation as defined in Section 1 of this Article X. The Corporation shall have power to indemnify such Trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by the Code.

ARTICLE XI
RECORDS AND REPORTS

Section 1. Maintenance of corporate records. The Corporation shall keep:

(a) Adequate and correct books and records of account;

(i) inspect and copy the records of members' names and addresses and voting rights during usual business hours on five (5) days' prior written demand on the Corporation, stating the purpose for which the inspection rights are requested; or
(ii) obtain from the Secretary of the Corporation, on written demand and on the tender of reasonable charges for such a list, if any, a list of names and addresses of Members who are entitled to vote for the election of Directors, and their voting rights, as of the most recent record date for which that list has been compiled, or as of a date specified by the Member after the date of demand. The demand shall state the purpose for which the list is requested and shall be signed by the Member making the request under penalty of perjury. This list shall be made available to any such Member by the Secretary on or before the later of ten (10) days after the demand is received or the date specified in it as the date by which the list is to be compiled.

(b) Any Member of the Corporation may inspect the accounting books and records and minutes of the proceedings of the members and the Board and committees of the Board, at any reasonable time, for a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a Member.

(c) Any inspection and copying under this section may be made in person or by an agent or attorney of the Member and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts.

Section 3. Maintenance and inspection of Articles and Bylaws. The Corporation shall keep at its principal executive office the original or a copy of the Articles and Bylaws as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the members at all reasonable times during office hours.
Section 4. Inspection by Directors. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of every kind and the physical properties of the Corporation. This inspection by a Director may be made in person or by an agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents.

Section 5. Annual report to Members.

(a) Not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of the Corporation’s fiscal year, the Board shall cause an annual report to be sent to the Members. Such report shall contain the following information in reasonable detail:

(i) The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the Corporation as of the end of the fiscal year.
(ii) The principal changes in assets and liabilities, including trust funds, during the fiscal year.
(iii) The revenue or receipts of the Corporation, both unrestricted and restricted to particular purposes, for the fiscal year.
(iv) The expenses or disbursements of the Corporation, for both general and restricted purposes, during the fiscal year.
(v) Any transaction(s) in which the Corporation was a party, and in which either of the following had a direct or indirect financial interest:
   (a) The name of any Director or officer of the Corporation, its parent or subsidiary; or
   (b) The name of any holder of more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of the Corporation, its parent or its subsidiary; if such a transaction involved over $50,000, or was one of a number of transactions with the same person involving, in the aggregate, over $50,000.

(vi) Any indemnifications or advances aggregating more than $10,000 paid during the fiscal year to any officer or Director of the Corporation pursuant to Article X hereof, unless such indemnification has already been approved by the Members pursuant to Section 5(b) of Article X.

(b) The report required by this Section shall be accompanied by any report thereon of independent accountants, or if there is no such report, by the certificate of an authorized officer of the Corporation that such statements were prepared without audit from the books and records of the Corporation.

Section 6. Endorsement of documents; contracts. Subject to the provisions of applicable law, any note, mortgage, evidence or indebtedness, contract, conveyance, or other instrument in writing and any assignment or endorsement thereof executed or entered into between the Corporation and any other person, when signed by the Chair or the Vice Chair, and the Secretary, any assistant secretary, the Treasurer or any assistant treasurer of the Corporation shall be valid and binding on the Corporation in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officers had no authority to execute the same. Any such Instruments may be signed by any other person or persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by the Board, and, unless so authorized by the Board, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to plead its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or amount.

Section 7. Representation of shares of other corporations. The Chair or Vice Chair or any other officer or officers authorized by the Board are each authorized to vote, represent, and exercise on behalf of the Corporation all rights incident to any and all shares of any other corporation or corporations standing in the name of the Corporation. The authority herein granted may be exercised either by any such officer in person or by any other person authorized so to do by proxy or power of attorney duly executed by said officer.

Section 8. Construction and definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions contained in the general provisions of the Code shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Should any paragraph of these Bylaws be in conflict with the Code then in effect, then said paragraph shall become null and void as if it were never contained in these Bylaws and the whole of the document shall continue in full force and effect as if said paragraph had not existed.

Section 9. Amendments. These Bylaws may be amended or repealed by approval of the Board; provided, however, that Members must approve any action that would:

(b) specify or change a fixed number of Directors or the maximum or minimum number of Directors or changing from a fixed to a variable Board or vice versa;
(c) extend the term of a Director beyond that for which the Director was elected or increase the term for which a Director shall hold office;

(e) restrict, create or expand proxy rights; or
(f) repeal a bylaw provision authorizing cumulative voting.

These Bylaws may be amended or repealed by approval of the Members provided, however, that such amendment or repeal also requires approval by the Members of a class if such action would materially and adversely affect the voting rights of that class in a manner different than such action affects another class.
