

BRITISH ACADEMY OF FILM AND TELEVISION ARTS

Public Online Events Code

By attending this/these event(s) you are accepting the following Terms & Conditions and agreeing to be bound by them and to comply by all applicable laws and regulations.

1. Event management reserve the right of admission, and can remove any Attendee from the event should they deem an Attendee's behaviour inappropriate. The decision of BAFTA Staff is final.
2. Attendees must not harass or abuse Panellists, Attendees or BAFTA staff during the event and any such behaviour will result in your removal from the event and escalation to the appropriate authorities, according to the severity of the incident. All decisions on removal are final and rest with BAFTA Staff and event management.
3. Latecomers may not be admitted. Should capacity for the event be reached at the event start time, attendees may be unable to join and will be placed in a waiting room where entry will only be permitted should space become available.
4. Attendees must not contact panellists directly and may not request autographs or photos.
5. No recording of the event is permitted.
6. Unless otherwise indicated, all graphics, logos and commercial markings are registered trademarks. You may not use, copy, reproduce, republish, upload, post, transmit, distribute or modify any Trademarks in any way, including in advertising or publicity pertaining to or distribution of materials, without prior written consent.
7. Event management reserve the right to make changes to these Terms and Conditions at any time without prior notice.

Age Restricts and Young Persons:

1. Events may be age restricted and it is the responsibility of the person who registers for the event to check that they comply with such age restrictions before purchasing the ticket, either for themselves or on behalf of someone else.
2. It is the responsibility of the person registering for the event to check the suitability of the event for any children attending the event, regardless of official age restrictions. N.B. Other than events specifically aimed at children, any BAFTA event may contain screened material which has not been certificated as suitable for children – for example, but not limited to films or games which have been certificated 12 or above; television programmes which will be aired after the watershed.

Privacy Policy: We respect your privacy and protect all personal information you provide when registering for events. The information you provide will be used only by ourselves to deliver services, to keep you informed with news, offers and future events, and to evaluate our programmes. We do not forward our database to outside companies involved in marketing. If at any point, you wish to be removed from our database, please do not hesitate to contact us at events@bafta.org. On occasion, we send out evaluation forms which are hugely valuable to us to ensure that our learning programmed continues to meet your needs. All evaluation forms are completely voluntary. We will never share your information with anyone else. Unless otherwise clearly stated, all evaluation forms will be anonymous. On occasion – for example, if we are offering a prize as an incentive – we will ask you to re-enter your e-mail address. Once the survey has been completed, any personal data will be deleted.
