Winner: Argo.

WILLIAM GOLDENBERG: Thank you so much, BAFTA, for this honour. It is really unbelievable, thank you.

Obviously, you know, film making is a team effort and I wouldn't be standing here without the hundreds of people who worked on Argo and gave us the brilliant work that they did. I want to thank Warner Brothers for making this film and I would like to thank my wife Alison for endless hours of support when I didn't think I could do this any more. Mostly I want to say to Ben, I share this award with you. You are a partner and you made every day coming to work a real thrill and I'm really appreciative. Thank you.
