

EE Rising Star award.

Winner: Juno Temple.

JUNO TEMPLE: Thank you. Wow. Thank you to BAFTA for this huge, huge honour and for including me on this list of such wonderful, wonderful actors.

And thank you to all of the voters, especially my little brother Felix, who I think got his entire school to vote for me. I couldn't do any of this without Michael Darfur, Billy Lazarus, who are truly the most amazing agents you could ever ask for, and I have to thank Tara Jones, Jamie Feldman and Jessica Colstan for somehow keeping me in check.

To all my wonderful family and friends and -- who just make this all make sense to me, and to this incredible room of inspirational people, and my father who truly, truly made me want to do this, thank you so much.

Thank you.
